

NORTH METRO TRAFFIC SCHOOL TO ADD NEW DEFENSIVE DRIVING & DUI RISK REDUCTION CLASSES

Additional Courses Now Offered In Metro Atlanta Through September

June 13, 2013 - Atlanta, GA - North Metro Traffic School, a Georgia certified court services and traffic school, announced today that it will add additional weekday and weekend DUI and Defensive Driving courses to its third quarter schedule.

To meet the growing demand for its programs, North Metro Traffic School will begin offering more DUI Risk Reduction courses and adding daytime Defensive Driving courses to its already extensive class schedule.

Beginning July 1, 2013, students will now have the option of beginning the weekday DUI Risk Reduction class on Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. and taking the Defensive Driving class during the week on Thursday's.

These additional options will improve the flexibility for its students and minimize client inconvenience when completing one of the school's court mandated programs in a timely manner.

To help manage the additional course load, North Metro Traffic School recently hired another DUI Risk Reduction instructor and Defensive Driving teacher to begin instructing in July. These new employees bring years of teaching experience with them and will play a major role as the school continues to expand.

North Metro Traffic School currently offers a wide array of courses and counseling programs and will continue to provide Drug and Alcohol Evaluations, Victim Impact Panels and ASAM group treatment sessions in addition to it's DUI Risk Reduction and Defensive Driving programs.
